INVITATION FOR APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION INTO THE PRACTICAL LEGAL TRAINING PROGRAMME IN THE YEAR 2024

Introduction:

The Law School of Tanzania is a public training institution established by Act Cap. 425 to provide practical legal training for law graduates who aspire to become legal practitioners.

The School now invites applications from qualified candidates wishing to pursue the practical legal training programme in the January 2024 and July 2024 intakes. Each applicant must indicate the intake in which he/she would like to be considered. However, the School reserves the right to slot him/her in a different intake. Applicants who were offered admission in the past but failed to enroll for the programme must re-apply.

Entry Requirements:

1.0 An applicant must meet the following minimum qualifications to be admitted into the programme:

(a) He/she must be a holder of a Bachelor of Laws Degree or a person who has become eligible for the conferment of the Bachelor of Laws Degree of an accredited higher learning institution in Tanzania Mainland; or,

(b) He/she must be a holder of a Bachelor of Laws Degree or a person who has become eligible for the conferment of the Bachelor of Laws Degree of a higher learning institution recognized by the Tanzania Commission for Universities (TCU) and whose content is approved by the Council of Legal Education for purposes of admission to the School; or,

(c) He/she must have equivalent qualifications approved by the Council of Legal Education obtained from any institution within or outside Tanzania.

2.0 In addition to the above criteria, an applicant shall be eligible for the programme if he/she has studied and passed all the prescribed core courses of the Bachelor of Laws Degree programme shown in Table 1 below:
